ABOUT LIVING SENT MINISTRIES

The purpose of Living Sent Ministries is to inspire and equip business and professional leaders at all levels to live out their Christian faith. It is about "Connecting Sunday to Monday". A core principle of Living Sent Ministries is that God gave you your business or job (vocation) to build the Kingdom.
- Matthew 6:33

OUR HISTORY

After two years of prayer and planning, Living Sent Ministries was incorporated as a 501 (c) 3 non-profit corporation on August 14, 2009. In 2012, a partnership was formed with Union University Hendersonville. The partnership has provided numerous benefits, including a corporate office, meeting space, access to faculty, and the credibility that comes with an established Christian University.

Over the years, the ministry has increased its impact by serving business and professional leaders across a dozen U.S. cities, fostered the creation of multiple new Christ-centered businesses, offered small group living sent teaching, the design and implementation of Ministry Action Plans, Business as Ministry Days, and Days On the Hill. Most recently, the Living Sent Academy was initiated to equip, mentor and commission (send) Academy graduates into the marketplace to build the kingdom of God.

HOW TO LIVE SENT

Bloom where you are planted.

Care to help build the Kingdom right where God has you assigned in the marketplace?

Start something new.

Do you have a passion for addressing an unmet community need? Consider forming either a for profit or nonprofit company and start something new.

Give your skills (vocational) away to a community ministry.

Is there a community ministry that could benefit from your vocational skills and talents?

A Church Big Vision for the City.

Does your church have a Big Vision for the City? Do you have one and want to encourage your church to consider helping you to develop it?

INSIGHTS FROM LIVING SENT LEADERS

THE ABCS OF LIVING SENT MINISTRIES

JUDI BELL, VICE CHAIR, CITY LEADERSHIP TEAMS

Living Sent Ministries is a clear reminder of what scripture shares in terms of 'A'DVICE. Since our mission is to LIVE SENT from Sunday to Monday, one of our main frameworks is sharing ADVICE through our workplaces or the marketplace. We accomplish this goal through volunteer City Leadership Teams (CLT's). Our teams inspire and equip our (colleagues, management, owners, CEO's or others) to live out their faith and grow the kingdom from Sunday to Monday. See Isaiah 6:8 or John 20:21.

The 'B' stands for BIBLICAL PRINCIPLES. Through our CEGs (Christian Executive Groups), members meet monthly in homes, businesses, or churches to discuss guiding principles using a book or Bible study from the Jesus Works Here Library. My own experience with these important support groups and as a team leader has placed me as both student and facilitator, more recently as the facilitator of Shannon Bream's The Women of the Bible Speak. The CEG's are a key component of our ministry.

The 'C' of Living Sent Ministries might be considered our CALLING whereby those members in leadership positions, employees, or even retirees create a MAP (Ministry Action Plan). Just as one who takes a vacation knows, without planning in advance, no final destination is achieved easily. Action plans include core values, a statement of purpose, kingdom practices and potential, ministry opportunities, actions taken for future service to others to build God's kingdom. My own home state of Tennessee has adopted as its second motto, "The Send Me" state.

ON STARTING A NEW CHAPTER

"I PLANTED, APOLLOS WATERED, BUT GOD GAVE THE GROWTH." 1 CORINTHIANS 3:6

DR. JERRY FAULKNER, DIRECTOR, EAST TENNESSEE TEAM LEADER

Paul's botanical illustration of the spread of the gospel is a fitting analogy for the process of creating a new LSM chapter. One on one meetings sow the seed, while discovery events water and God gives the increase. It's a team effort.

For the last few years, we have been working toward a Knoxville region chapter. Using our network, we have worked to schedule one-on-one meetings in the area. It's been classic network building. Every meeting concludes with the request, "Who else should know about LSM? Would you send an introductory e-mail?"

In September 2024, we held our first Knoxville Discovery Day. These events bring together current network members and invite new potential participants. Discovery Days build community and offer a taste of what LSM monthly meetings are like. With the assistance of Judi Bell, Vice Chair, City Leadership Teams, we hope to have another, larger Discovery event in 2027.

One new effort in Knoxville is forming an advisory board. These are people who support the LSM mission, are well-connected, and can help spread the message. For example, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs has agreed to serve on the advisory board. We will be seeking other members for the board, for East Tennessee, the rest of the state, and even nationally.

OUTREACH INITIATIVES IN WORKPLACES AND THE STATE CAPITOL

SUMNER COUNTY MAYOR, JOHN C. ISBELL, PHD, VICE CHAIR, EVANGELISM AND OUTREACH

LIVING SENT MINISTRIES BUSINESS AS MINISTRY DAY (BAM) SUMMARY

Business as Ministry Day is guided by four core principles: 1. Jesus Loves You (John 3:16). 2. We Love You (Matthew 22:37-40). 3. Your Work Matters to God (Colossians 3:23). 4. How Can We Pray for You Today? (Philippians 4:6). During our fall 2025 Sumner County BAM Day, six cities were visited across Sumner County. Ninety-seven individuals received prayer and encouragement. Thirty work locations were visited across public safety, education, government, healthcare, and retail. Multiple volunteer teams were deployed throughout the cities, including leaders from business, education, government, and pastors from churches. Pastor Josh Waugh, The Church at Grace Park, captured the heart of the day: "As a Pastor, you come to us in our churches and ask for prayers every Sunday. Today, we wanted to come to you and pray for you in your place. Your job matters. The work you do matters to us, to our community, and to the Lord." Business as Ministry Day embodies Living Sent Ministries' core calling: taking faith beyond Sunday and into the workplaces, schools, and city halls where people spend their everyday lives.

LIVING SENT MINISTRIES DAY ON the HILL (DAY OTH) SUMMARY

On March 25, 2026, LSM conducted its fourth Annual Day On the Hill at the Tennessee Capitol. The purpose of Day On the Hill is to fellowship with and pray for elected leaders and staff at the state Capitol. Over thirty volunteers visited 131 legislative offices at the Tennessee Capitol. A prayer meeting occurred with Governor Bill Lee, The message was simple: Jesus loves you. We love you. How can we pray for you today?

I have spent a good part of my career in public service, and I can say plainly: the leaders who came out of these two days lead differently. Living Sent is not producing programs. It is producing people who understand that their vocation is their mission field.

PHOTO JOURNAL

Volunteer and staff leaders have built a scalable and replicable framework to aggressively launch new chapters in Tennessee and North American workplaces. Our websites have been updated to help accomplish this goal as well as a new book has been published and released. The Sunday to Monday Revolution: Making Monday Matter is available for sale at Amazon. It is a blueprint for action to grow the impact of living sent across Tennessee and America. It provides ten ways to Join the Sunday to Monday Revolution and change your world right where you are located.
